UPCOMING DEMONSTRATIONS/ CONVOYS:

- CIG received reports of a possible convoy departing the Beauce Region in Quebec. According to the information provided, a group of approx. 30 participants may leave on 2022-02-26 towards Ottawa. CIG could not corroborate the information at this time. No promotional material has been located through open sources at this time. CIG will continue to monitor.

- PPS-PI identified an updated video from the Facebook user Personal Info. The video was posted on 2022-02-24 and has been shared approx. 424 times. At this time, there is no indication how many are interested or how many will attend. Personal appears to be from Alberta, so it is unknown how much influence he has over the local supports or those how remain in the area. PPS-PI has flagged the following key points from the video.
    - Advising that he Personal is confirming that access will be granted by peaceful protesters through the OPS checkpoints, as he tested it out yesterday.
    - 0900hrs march from Confederation Park to Parliament Hill.
    - Advises that he is not trying to highjack the movement from Pers or Person but simply trying to keep Canada united.
    - Highlights he wants the protests to remain peaceful and no harassing law enforcement no disturbing of the peace abiding all city bylaws.
    - Advises followers that the Canadian Charter allows them to peacefully protest.
    - States that if the attendees are asked to leave by police, to do so, but to also get their badge number, their name, and the reason you are being asked to leave.
    - In order to not be labelled an occupation, he is advising to not bring anything like temporary shelters and not to park illegally in the streets.
